Pat Hall provided a report on Goal Team #1 and its search for facilitators for 2011 and beyond. One of the goal team members, Judy Sheppard, provided a fabulous overview of the work of the Sacred Heart Sisters. She reported on her discussions with the sisters about their extensive experience in leading a family-oriented parish mission. They would be willing to come to our parish at minimal cost and lead a mission. They also would be willing to participate in a type of vacation Bible school or camp for young people. Pat Hall is going to discuss the 2011 mission and a theme with the Adult Faith Formation ministry and obtain their input on bringing the Sacred Heart Sisters to our parish.

Michelle updated the Council on the sign-up for our hosting of the Soup and Stations of the Cross on Friday, February 19, 2010. She reminded the members of the upcoming informational meetings for potential new Council members, on March 23rd and April 7th. We all discussed following up with people who might be interested in serving on the Council. Claire reported on the bulletin announcements and the status of a flyer or insert for the bulletins.

Goal Team #2 had no activity to report. Regina D'Souza graciously has agreed to try to coordinate the next meeting. Goal Team #3 also provided a report and hopes to have its next meeting within the next few weeks.

Pat Beckett agreed to lead faith sharing at the next meeting which is scheduled for March 9, 2010 at 7:00 p.m. Father Foley closed the meeting with a prayer. The meeting adjourned at 8:35.
