In-person classes have been split into two groups (A and B) and will alternate between classes at Good Shepherd and at home as follows:

- Group A will come to the church for classroom instruction while Group B is at home covering the same material with their family.
- The following week Group B will come for classroom instruction while Group A covers the material at home.
- Siblings in a family will be assigned to the same group.

NOTE: Classes meeting at Good Shepherd will follow the most current CDC guidelines children which suggests:

- sitting 6 feet apart in class,
- facing the same direction as much as possible,
- and wearing face masks (from the time they exit the car to the time they re-enter the car).

We have designated up and down staircases; please follow the directions of safety monitors, office staff, and catechists. We will also have visible signs to direct everyone.
